

Christian Nationalism

“Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord” (Ps. 33:12)

“Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any people” (Prov. 14:34)

A. America and Christianity

1. The Christian Colonies
2. The Christian Culture

B. A Return to Christian Values

1. The source of truth is Scripture
2. God commands “nations” to serve Him
3. God’s moral law is the standard of justice
4. A nation is a particular people in a particular place
5. Christ is King over all earthly kings
6. Civil authorities are delegated to be servants of God’s justice
7. Civil authorities are tasked with protection
8. God’s purpose for civil government does not include the establishment of godless order
9. God’s authority is distributed in jurisdictional spheres
10. Nations have a God-given right to establish Godly national priorities
11. Christians can and should participate in civil government
12. Nations are responsible to create legislation that reflects the moral principles of God’s law (general equity)

13. Civil disobedience is a proper response:

- a. When states command what God forbids
- b. When states forbid what God commands
- c. When states seek to co-opt other spheres of jurisdiction
- d. When states seek to bind the consciences of Christians

14. Truth telling must be the operational methodology

15. War is only to be waged for a just cause

16. Equal protection under the law for all image bearers
